Property Description

Casa Reforma is a warm and inviting single-level Art Deco home that beautifully reflects the timeless character of Mérida's historic center. From the street, the home immediately stands out with its warm yellow colonial façade accented by crisp white trim. A low, curved front wall with decorative ironwork creates privacy while maintaining an open and welcoming presence. Behind it, a landscaped front garden adds greenery and charm, setting the tone for what lies beyond.

Inside, a central hallway showcases original pasta tile floors and soaring ceilings with exposed wooden beams—architectural elements that continue throughout the home. The living and dining areas are filled with natural light and offer generous proportions, making them ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

The fully equipped kitchen features wooden cabinetry and a comfortable dining area, designed for practicality while remaining true to the home's traditional aesthetic. Adjacent spaces flow naturally toward the garden, reinforcing the strong indoor-outdoor connection typical of classic Centro homes.

All three bedrooms retain original pasta tile floors and soaring ceilings; two bedrooms are equipped with air conditioning. Bedrooms two and three are connected, making them well-suited for use as guest rooms, a home office suite, or a flexible family layout. Two full bathrooms add everyday comfort and functionality.

The backyard is a true highlight: a lush, private garden with high perimeter walls, a large, filtered swimming pool with wide steps, a tiled outdoor shower, and a cozy seating area ideal for relaxing or entertaining. At the rear of the property, a separate casita—currently used as an office and laundry space—adds valuable flexibility. Its rooftop terrace offers beautiful views over the garden and the surrounding neighborhood, perfect for sunset drinks or quiet evenings.

The home is fully prepared for air conditioning, with units already installed in two bedrooms, ceiling fans throughout, and all electrical and plumbing systems completely replaced. Additional comfort and sustainability upgrades—such as further A/C units, solar panels, or smart-home features—can be added with ease.

Overall, Casa Reforma is a visually striking and well-maintained Centro property, an ideal foundation for a personalized home or a strong long-term rental investment.
